Needs of Our Church

Sally Funk – Continue to keep her in your prayers. Her shingles have all cleared up, but she is still having some pain and discomfort.

Jane Gehman – She came home from the hospital and is continuing to regain strength at home. Pray that her heart, blood pressure and kidneys are all able to work together and function normally.

Donna Kingsboro – She began her chemotherapy treatments at this point she is doing well. She has 1 more treatment before having surgery in June. Pray for healing and strength and that she continues to respond well to the treatments.

UPCOMING EVENTS

The Food Bank needs cans of pork and beans and jars of jelly. You can place these donations on the food bank table in the library.

Women's Connect – Volunteers are needed to serve on the Women's Connect committee. This is an opportunity to serve the Lord and the church by organizing and planning 3 women's events for over the summer months. 3 or 4 volunteers are needed. See Pastor Dan if you would like more information, or if you are willing to serve.

Reich's Bikes will be rolling again this summer. Our first outing is Thursday May 16th, at Riverfront Park. We will be rolling out of the small lot (the one at the park exit) at 6:30 PM. More information for the summer program will be provided as an insert in next week's bulletin. Questions: contact Ralph Owens at 610-310-3446.

The Truth Project will meet weekly on Wednesday evenings from 7-8:30 (depending on length of discussion) 6/5 through 8/21. Practically and personally, participants will be reintroduced to the truth claims of God. Most importantly, we will address the need to marry our actions to our core beliefs. Registration is required so enough participant guides can be ordered. (Provided by us at no cost to you- $10 value) Sign up on the sheet on the table in the foyer. Who, outside our church family, have you invited?

In preparation for next week's sermon read Matthew 25:1-13
